Exercise 02

Intro

2

For this week's workshop, you will need to work on two different exercises. The exercises should be done step by step using the git commands from the previous lectures.

01

3

- Create an empty folder and initialize git in there;
- Create a “readme.txt” file and input your first name and last name there;
- Create a new branch and name it part-one. Here you should only have the “readme” file at first;
- Create your “index.html” & “style.css” files and the “images” folder;
- Write your code to have content as on the screenshot below.

Section One

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet consectetur, adipiscing elit. Illum accumsan, superatur fuga ex ut, quidem, odio nam consectetur volupatum libero voluptatibus. Inato architecto, perspiciatis mollitia incidunt deserunt vicinidm nulla. Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet consectetur adipiscing elit. Laudantium cupiditate elvaccati beatae molestias consequatur sobis officia alias harum omnis soluta totam, tempora iure unde ducimus, defeniti nesciunt quisquam, reprehenderit maiores?

- When you finish your code, commit it and switch to the master branch;
- From the master branch, create another branch named part-two;
- Create a new “index.html,” “style.css,” and “images” folder;
- Write the code for the next content here;
- When you finish the content shown on the next slide, commit it.

Loem ipsum dolor sit amet consectetur adipiscing elit. Vestibulum, nullam nunc quis nunc quisque ante libero risi liberoque nobis itaque tempore culpa. Molestiae luctantur nunc cumque ligati defectus eaque veniam. Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet consectetur adipiscing elit. Molestiae, nullam nunc his ante culpa quam? Non, voluptatem, architecto tempore delenit ipsa velit danti blanditiis cum molestiae exortitatione quam aperiam recumbat? Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet consectetur adipiscing elit. - Now, merge the part-one and part-two branches into part-one;
- Resolve the conflicts, if any, and merge the master branch with the part-one branch;
- Commit the changes and see if you have the final look for the website, as shown in the screenshots folder.

02

- Create an empty folder and initialize git in there;
- Create your “index.html” & “style.css” files and the “images” folder;
- In “index.html,” write the code for the content below and commit your changes.

8

02

9

- Create a new footer branch;
- In the “index.html” file, add your footer tags;
- Your client has a new request for the header you just missed (awful, we know);
- Commit your footer changes;
- Go back to the master branch, and add the additional item in the navbar, as shown below.

02

- Switch back to the footer branch;
- Create the footer content, as shown below;
- Commit your changes, switch to master, and merge it with the footer branch.

02

- Create a new branch and name it section-one;
- Switch to it, and create the content for the first section, as shown below.
- Commit your changes and switch back to the master branch.

11

02

- Create a new branch and name it section-two;
- Switch to it, and create the content for the second section, as shown below;
- Commit your changes and switch back to the master branch.

02

13

- While on the master branch, merge the code with the one on the section-one branch;
- Afterward, merge with the section-two branch;
- Resolve the conflicts, if any, and commit your changes;
- The website should have its final look, as shown on the next slide.

Please use the screenshots folder to see how the pages should look. If there is not enough time, try to finish the exercises at home. Feel free to use different images for the exercises if not provided.
